[p. 370] I. INTRODUCTION. In a previous paper various propositions were presented which would have to be included in any theory of human motivation that could lay claim to being definitive. These conclusions may be briefly summarized as follows: 1. The integrated wholeness of the organism must be one of the foundation stones of motivation theory.

Classics or classical studies is the study of classical antiquity. It encompasses the study of the Greco-Roman world, particularly of its languages and literature (Ancient Greek and Classical Latin) but also of Greco-Roman philosophy, history, and archaeology. Traditionally in the West, the study of the Greek and Roman classics is considered one of the cornerstones of the humanities and a ...

Among physicists, Ernst Mach is today probably remembered most for rejecting Isaac Newton's concepts of absolute time and space before Albert Einstein did, a factor that strongly influenced the theory of relativity. For the general public, his name is just as probably immortal through his Mach number, which expresses the speed of matter relative to the speed of sound at a certain temperature.
